The monthly religious services at the Home have been conducted by the following-named clergymen:

Rev. Arthur Little, D.D., Rev. Samuel L. Loomis, Rev. James Reed, Rev. D. W. Waldron, Rev. George L. Perin, D.D., Rev. Charles R. Tenney, Rev. Albert Walkley.

Music for religious and funeral services has been voluntarily furnished by interested young people, under the direction of the same kind friend who has done these services for several years.

The Thanksgiving dinner was supplied by income from the Peter C. Brooks Fund. Choice poultry for the Christmas dinner was donated by Messrs. Sturtevant & Haley.

We have been kindly remembered by Mr. F. E. Pond, of the Boston Theatre; Mr. A. F. Carpenter, general manager of Boston Food Fair; Mr. Henry E. Ducker, manager of Charles River Park; Mr. C. W. Fourdrinier, manager of New England Cycle Show, in free admissions; by Rev. D. W. Waldron, for the Fresh Air Fund in entertainment at the Old Folks' Party in Franklin Park. Many packages of books, papers, magazines, and partly worn clothing, have been received from unknown friends. For these and many other donations adding comfort and cheerfulness to our large family, we desire to express our appreciation.

A remarkable and most interesting event was celebrated by a reception at the Home on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 30, 1897, it being the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of an inmate, Mr. Joseph Davis Jones. He was born in Boston at the North End, Dec. 30, 1797, and is probably the oldest living Bostonian, and undoubtedly the oldest Boston school-boy. There were about 150 present at the reception. Among the guests were representatives of "The Old School-Boys' Association," of the "Tremont Temple Church," of which Mr. Jones is a member, and his pastors, Rev.

George C. Lorimer, D.D., and Rev. Horace F. Barnes, also the Directors of the Home with their ladies, and other guests. Brief addresses were made by his pastors; flowers decorated the reception-rooms, and a generous collation was served. The members of the Home family and all present fully enjoyed the occasion.

Directors' Meetings.

ART. V. They shall have the power to enter into and bind the Corporation by such contracts as they may deem advantageous. They may appoint all proper and necessary officers, assistants, and servants for the management and care of the Home and beneficiaries, with such salaries and allowances as they may from time to time fix and determine, and may remove the same at pleasure; and make all such rules and regulations for their own government, and for the government of such officers, assistants, and servants, for the admission, confirmation, discharge, removal, control, and care of inmates, and the well ordering and conducting of the respective departments of the Home as to them may seem proper and expedient: provided, however, that the said rules and regulations may be altered or amended by the Corporation at their Annual Meeting or at any legal meeting especially called for the purpose. They shall manage, invest, and dispose of the property of the Corporation, and shall receive and collect donations and bequests; but no sale or transfer of any of the property, and no payment

The Committee shall keep a register, in which shall be entered the names of applicants, their respective ages, place of birth and residence, by whom recommended, date of application, the decision of the Directors thereon, and such other facts as they may deem important; and they shall assign to inmates their rooms.

ART. IX. The Superintendent, under the direction of the Executive Committee, shall have charge of the house, and shall strictly obey and enforce the rules and regulations of the Directors. Order, neatness, and good conduct must prevail throughout the Home.

The Superintendent shall have the care of, and be responsible for, all supplies furnished for the use of the family; shall be present at meals, see that they are properly served, that suitable food is provided for the sick, proper order is observed at table, a blessing asked before each meal; and by firmness, kindness, attention, and judicious treatment endeavor to secure the comfort and happiness of the inmates. At each monthly meeting of the Executive Committee, the Superintendent shall present, in writing, a statement of the supplies required, with a report of the condition of the Home and its inmates, and such other matters as may be important. Improper conduct of any of the inmates shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

The Superintendent shall keep a book in which shall be recorded a list of the furniture, linen, and other articles belonging to the Home, which list shall be corrected annually in the month of December, and laid before the Corporation at its annual meeting in January.

Presents, other than money, shall be entered, with the name of the donor, in a book kept for the purpose by the Superintendent.

Beneficiaries.

ART. X. SECT 1. Every applicant must furnish satisfactory testimonials of the respectability of his character, and freely communicate all facts necessary to a proper understanding of his case.

SECT. 2. In no case whatever shall any person be placed on the list of beneficiaries but those who are natives of the United States of America, are at least fifty-five years of age, and have resided in Boston during the ten years next preceding their application for relief, unless by the unanimous vote of all the Directors present, the number present being not less than twelve.

SECT. 3. Each beneficiary when first admitted shall be upon probation for the term of six months. After the expiration of said term, the Directors shall, as they deem expedient, dismiss or confirm the applicant as a permanent inmate of the Home. Any person admitted to the Home, who does not avail himself of the privilege within thirty days from the date of his admission, may, at the option of the Executive Committee, forfeit the right to enter the Home.

SECT. 4. Persons not confirmed as permanent inmates shall be refunded the balance of the admission fee paid by them, after deducting therefrom a reasonable amount for the time they have remained in the Home, as a compensation for their board.

SECT. 5. Every inmate must obey the rules and regulations of the Corporation and of the Directors.

SECT. 6. The Directors in all cases reserve the right to dismiss and expel from the Home any inmate who shall violate any of the rules, or whom, from any other cause, they may deem not to be a proper object of this charity; admissions to the Home not being permanent, but only during the good behavior of the inmates and the pleasure of the Directors. Notice of the intention to dismiss and expel an inmate shall be given in the call for the meeting when such action is to be taken.

SECT. 7. Beneficiaries aided out of the Home may be stricken from the list, or the amount of relief modified at any time, by vote of the Directors.

SECT. 8. The Directors shall from time to time fix the terms of admission to the Home. Unless otherwise ordered, one hundred and fifty dollars shall be the fee for admission in each case.

SECT. 9. Furniture and other articles brought into the Home, by or for permanent inmates, must remain for the benefit and use of the Home. Beneficiaries who have property must secure the same to the Corporation before admission; and, in case of money or other property coming into their possession after their admission, by inheritance, bequest, or otherwise, if they continue as an inmate of the Home, they must make the same over to the Corporation, upon the demand of the Directors.

SECT. 10. Any inmate desirous, for any cause, to leave the Home, is at liberty to depart. Should he leave within six months from his admission as a permanent inmate, the entrance-money which has been paid on his account shall be returned, after deducting a reasonable amount for his support while in the Home. Should he have made over any property to the Corporation, the said property or the amount of the proceeds of the same shall be paid to him, after deducting his board for the time he has been in the Home; but, after once leaving, he cannot return as an inmate, unless by vote of the Directors.

Amendments.

ART. XI. These By-laws may be altered or amended at any legal meeting of the Directors, provided that, in the notices calling said meeting, it shall have been stated that an alteration or amendment is to be made.

HOUSE RULES.

1. The entire care of the house shall be in charge of the Superintendent, under the direction of the Executive Committee.

2. The Superintendent shall strictly obey and enforce the rules, and by firmness, kindness, attention, and judicious treatment endeavor to secure the comfort and happiness of the inmates; who, on their part, shall pay strict obedience to all rules and regulations, and treat the Directors, Visitors, Superintendents, Assistants, and each other with becoming respect, and by gentlemanly conduct at all times, and by acts of courtesy and forbearance, endeavor to make a happy household.

3. Every inmate, except in case of sickness, is expected to attend all religious services.

4. Breakfast at seven one-half o'clock; dinner at one o'clock; supper at six o'clock.

11. No tobacco smoking will be allowed in the house.

12. Inmates will not be allowed to enter the kitchen, store-room, or other offices of the house, unless by consent of the Superintendent; and they are also expected to pay a due regard to the privacy of each other's rooms.

13. No inmate will be permitted to interfere with or find fault with the assistants or servants. If they have cause for complaint, they must, in the first place, state their grievance to the Superintendent; if not remedied, they can appeal to the Executive Committee.

14. The assistants and servants will at all times be required to treat the inmates with becoming kindness, forbearance, and respect; to be courteous to all visitors, and strictly comply with the rules of the house.

15. No inmate or person employed in the house will be permitted to be out after ten o'clock P.M., at which hour the doors will be closed for the night.
